

A two-day event to Inspire – Learn – Network

Session times listed are inclusive of Q&As

DAY 1 Wednesday 6 November
9am to 9.30am	Registration and time to visit exhibitors
9.30am to 9.40am	Welcome CPHVA Executive Chair Janet Taylor
9.40am to 10am	Unite update / Key messages
10am to 11am	PANEL: Chief Nursing Officers on CP workforce challenges and resolutions (including extended Q&As with delegates) An informative and interactive session from the UK's most senior nursing leaders CNO for Wales Sue Tranka CNO (interim) for Scotland Anne Armstrong CNO for Northern Ireland Maria McIlgorm CNO for England (Deputy) Acosia Nyanin
11am to 11.30am	Refreshment break (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
11.30am to 12.30pm	Enhancing Practice: 2 parts
11.30am	The role of the Professional Nurse Advocate Queen's Nurse Jo Bettison Professional nurse advocate and family nurse partnership supervisor, Shropshire Community Health NHS Trust
12pm	The rise of social prescribing Queen's Nurse Helen Burke SCPHN lead nurse for children and young people's mental health, Derbyshire Community Health Services NHS Foundation Trust
12.30pm to 1.30pm	Lunch (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
1.30pm to 2.10pm	Born in Bradford Internationally recognised research project on what keeps families happy and healthy – influencing big changes in practice Lydia Gunning Programme manager of Born in Bradford's Centre for Applied Education Research
2.10pm to 2.40pm	Innovative projects I: Improving education infrastructure How to support better recruitment and retention of the SCPHN workforce, and how to maintain quality post-registration teaching, learning and assessment for students within O-19 services Jenny Gilmore A legacy SCPHN health visitor and former clinical director for O-19 Nicky Brown Senior nurse and public health specialist
2.40pm to 3.10pm	NMC Important updates Elaine Robinson Nurse education adviser, NMC professional practice, and assistant professor in the department of Nursing, Midwifery and Health at Northumbria University
3.10pm to 3.40pm	Refreshment break (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
3.40pm to 4.10pm	Vaccine update All you need to know about the latest developments
4.10pm-4.30pm	Positive culture Ethel Rodrigues Unite (health) lead professional officer
4.30pm-4.45pm	The CPHVA Education and Development Trust Update on the latest MacQueen Awards and the charity's work Kitty Lamb CPHVA Education and Development Trust chair
4.45pm-4.55pm	Unite health update Richard Munn Unite national officer for health
5pm	Conference day 1 close CPHVA Executive Chair Janet Taylor
7pm	Unite-CPHVA Excellence Awards 2004 presentation and dinner buffet

A celebratory ceremony and evening to recognise outstanding work and innovation across the CP professions over the last 18 months, plus time to network

A two-day event to Inspire – Learn – Network

Session times listed are inclusive of Q&As

DAY 2 Thursday 7 November

8.40am to 9am	Registration and time to visit exhibitors
9am to 9.10am	Welcome CPHVA Executive Chair Janet Taylor
9.10am to 10.10pm	PANEL: Pressing issues facing clients across the UK and how you can help (including extended Q&As with delegates) Senior practitioners and academics share their insights on the challenges and opportunities facing families Wales Joanne Penny and Kerry Parry Health visitors and Unite representatives England Dr Georgia Cook Research fellow, and Dr Fiona Tierney Post-doctoral psychology research assistant. Oxford Brookes University (Specialism: sleep. Current focus: how school nurses can help) Northern Ireland Emily Roberts Designated nurse for safeguarding children and young people, Public Health Agency Scotland Annie Hair Senior nurse practice development in children's services, Glasgow and Clyde Health Board and a Unite OPC chair
10.10am to 10.50am	Innovative projects 2: Research and practice updates on neonatal tests for Black, Asian and ethnic minority newborns Professor Hora Soltani Midwife and professor of maternal and infant health Dr Frankie Fair Midwife and research fellow. Sheffield Hallam University
10.50am to 11.20am	Political session A government representative shares insights on the latest relevant policies
11.20am to 11.50am	Refreshment break (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
11.50am to 12.45pm	CALL FOR PAPERS presentations Celebrating Innovation in Practice Successful submissions are presented to delegates
12.45pm to 1.45pm	Lunch (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
1.45pm to 2.30pm	Nick Robin Memorial Lecture/ Keynote speaker Rukshana Kapasi Director of health at leading children's charity Barnardo's Rukshana has been working in the NHS and charitable sector for more than 30 years as a nurse, commissioner, trustee and senior leader. In a thought-provoking session, Rukshana will talk about major new projects piloted by Barnardo's and the need for more co-ordinated services due to workforce issues
2.30pm to 3.20pm	Looking after number one Health and wellbeing toolkit to improve practitioner mental health Interactive session with Stephen Hamilton Psychiatric nurse, author, researcher and teacher
3.20pm to 3.35pm	A special finale to celebrate the professions An interactive performance by the Choir with No Name a charity supporting those affected by homelessness
3.45pm	Conference close CPHVA Executive Chair Janet Taylor