

A two-day event to Inspire – Learn – Network

Session times listed are inclusive of Q&As

DAY 1 Wednesday 6 November
9am to 9.30am	Registration and time to visit exhibitors
9.30am to 9.40am	Welcome CPHYA Executive Chair Janet Taylor
9.40am to 10am	Unite opening address Dominic Hook   National Sector Coordinator for Public Services
10am to 11am	PANEL: Chief Nursing Officers on CP workforce challenges and resolutions (including extended Q&As with delegates) An informative and interactive session from the UK's most senior nursing leaders CNO for Wales   Paul Labourne , Welsh Government (on behalf of Sue Tranka) CNO (interim) for Scotland   Anne Armstrong CNO for Northern Ireland   Sonia Glendinning , Dept of Health (on behalf of Maria McIlgorm) CNO for England (Deputy)   Acosia Nyanin
11am to 11.30am	Refreshment break (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
11.30am to 12.30pm	Enhancing Practice: 2 parts
11.30am	The role of the Professional Nurse Advocate Queen's Nurse Jo Bettison   Professional nurse advocate and family nurse partnership supervisor, Shropshire Community Health NHS Trust
12pm	The rise of social prescribing Queen's Nurse Helen Burke   SCPHN lead nurse for children and young people's mental health, Derbyshire Community Health Services NHS Foundation Trust
12.30pm to 1.30pm	Lunch (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
1.30pm to 2.10pm	Born in Bradford Internationally recognised research project on what keeps families happy and healthy – influencing big changes in practice Lydia Gunning   Programme manager of Born in Bradford's Centre for Applied Education Research
2.10pm to 2.40pm	Innovative projects I: Improving education infrastructure How to support better recruitment and retention of the SCPHN workforce, and how to maintain quality post-registration teaching, learning and assessment for students within O-19 services Jenny Gilmour   A legacy SCPHN health visitor and former clinical director for O-19 Nicky Brown   Senior nurse and public health specialist
2.40pm to 3.10pm	NMC Important updates Elaine Robinson   Nurse education adviser, NMC professional practice, and assistant professor in the department of Nursing, Midwifery and Health at Northumbria University
3.10pm to 3.40pm	Refreshment break (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
3.40pm to 4.10pm	Vaccine update All you need to know about the latest developments Professor Helen Bedford   UCL Great Ormond Street Institute of Child Health
4.10pm-4.30pm	Positive culture Ethel Rodrigues   Unite (health) lead professional officer
4.30pm-4.45pm	The CPHYA Education and Development Trust Update on the latest MacQueen Awards and the charity's work Kitty Lamb   CPHYA Education and Development Trust chair
4.45pm-4.55pm	Unite health update Richard Munn   Unite national officer for health
5pm	Conference day 1 close CPHYA Executive Chair Janet Taylor
7pm	Unite-CPHYA Excellence Awards 2024 presentation and dinner buffet

A celebratory ceremony and evening to recognise outstanding work and innovation across the CP professions over the last 18 months (Awards presentation starts 7.30PM), plus time to network

A two-day event to Inspire – Learn – Network

Session times listed are inclusive of Q&As

DAY 2 Thursday 7 November

8.40am to 9am	Registration and time to visit exhibitors
9am to 9.10am	Welcome CPHVA Executive Chair Janet Taylor
9.10am to 10.20pm	PANEL: Pressing issues facing clients across the UK and how you can help          (including extended Q&amp;As with delegates) Senior practitioners and academics share their insights on the challenges and opportunities facing families Wales Joanne Penny and Kerry Parry   Health visitors and Unite representatives England Dr Georgia Cook   Research fellow, and Dr Fiona Tierney   Post-doctoral psychology research assistant. Oxford Brookes University (Specialism: sleep. Current focus: how school nurses can help) Northern Ireland Mairead Donnelly   PHA Nurse Consultant for Early and School Years Scotland Annie Hair   Senior nurse practice development in children's services, Glasgow and Clyde Health Board and a Unite OPC chair; Kirsty Haggerty   Practice development nurse health visitor
10.20am to 11am	Innovative projects 2:  Research and practice updates on neonatal tests for Black, Asian and ethnic minority newborns Amy Furness   Midwifery researcher, Professor Hora Soltani's team, Sheffield Hallam University
11am to 11.30am	Refreshment break (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
11.30am to 12.45pm	CALL FOR PAPERS presentations Celebrating Innovation in Practice Successful submissions are presented to delegates Understanding mothers' coping mechanisms in the face of mental illness   Diana Skibniewski-Woods Experiences of parents with learning disabilities   Zoe Rawlence; Jo Sumner (Cornwall) Developing research capacity &amp; capability of SCPHNs   O-19 Research Network (Yorkshire &amp; Humber) Improving uptake of childhood immunisations   Sophie Ames (Leeds)
12.45pm to 1.45pm	Lunch (+ networking and exhibition viewing)
1.45pm to 2.30pm	Nick Robin Memorial Lecture/ Keynote speaker Rukshana Kapasi   Director of health at leading children's charity Barnardo's Rukshana has been working in the NHS and charitable sector for more than 30 years as a nurse, commissioner, trustee and senior leader. In a thought-provoking session, Rukshana will talk about major new projects piloted by Barnardo's and the need for more co-ordinated services due to workforce issues
2.30pm to 3.20pm	Looking after number one Health and wellbeing toolkit to improve practitioner mental health Interactive session with Stephen Hamilton   Psychiatric nurse, author, researcher and teacher
3.20pm to 3.35pm	A special finale to celebrate the professions An interactive performance by the Choir with No Name   a charity supporting those affected by homelessness
3.45pm	Conference close CPHVA Executive Chair Janet Taylor